

LITTLE FARM DOWN THE LANE - BOOK VIII

As a teenager, peer pressure and an undue amount of interest in boys wreaks havoc on Bonnie's life. Sneaking around behind her parents back, living a double life, she ends up in a frightening situation, which results in her returning to her Christian values. However, she still finds it difficult to know God's perfect will for her life. Is He calling her to be a missionary to Africa? Or does He have something totally different in mind? Little Farm books illustrate the joys and trials of growing up during the 1950s and 1960s while presenting Christian values in an entertaining format. Book I of this series won the Florida Writers Associations Best Unpublished Childrens Book Award and Xulon Press awarded her the 2004 Best New Christian Author Award. (Book VIII will be more fully enjoyed if Books I through VII are read first.) Book I - A Little Family Moves In Book II - Trouble, Mischief, and Adventure Book III - The Fire Book IV - Fluffy Book V - Stealing from God Book VI - The Hurricane Book VII - Saying Good-bye Bonnie and her husband reside in St. Petersburg, Florida. They visit schools and churches giving Little Farm presentations and/or speaking on parenting, grandparenting, and writing. Thank you, Bonnie, for the Christian values instilled in your literature-so needed in the field of childrens books and in the libraries of the home schooled. - Pauline Fanus - Head Academic Librarian (40 yrs) (named in Whos Who in America) If you've ever been love-struck, hang on to your heart once again as you experience with Bonnie, the gripping emotions that come with being a teenager. Be confident that the values with which she grapples in this book have guided her to this day. - Susan Bond, Secretary, Retired School Teacher, Grandmother
