

Jasmine Finds a Doctor

Lovable kittens Jasmine, Elizabeth and Alex are playing in the African savannah when Jasmine falls and hurts her knee. The three friends find a doctor, who just happens to be a monkey! When he stomps on Jasmines foot, the kittens are shocked. The monkey tells Jasmine that by hurting her foot, he hoped shed forget the pain in her knee! As Jasmine, Elizabeth and Alex continue their quest, it seems all the doctors of the savannah practice similar methods. When Jasmine gives up and goes home, her mother holds the key to pain relief. What does Jasmines mother do that makes her smile and feel much, much better? Jasmine Finds a Doctor is a fun, heartfelt and beautifully illustrated book for young children that will be read over and over again. Leone Smith grew up in Bloemfontein, South Africa and currently resides in Palapye, Botswana with her husband and daughter. She is inspired to write by her passion for animals and storytelling, and her daughter Jasmine. Ms. Smith is working on the next book of the Jasmine series, Jasmine Goes to the Circus.
