

I Fly (Dragonfly Books)

From the exhilaration of take-off to the joy of seeing ones family at the arrival gate, here is an ideal book to prepare a child for his or her first airline flight--solo or en famille. Anne Rockwell, beloved author of many popular childrens books on transportation, takes readers on a typical flight, describing in fascinating detail the many sights, sounds, and feelings of the journey from a young travelers point of view. Annette Cables (Me on the Map) detailed and vibrant illustrations perfectly complement the child-friendly text while her birds-eye views show the earth spread out like a giant patchwork quilt.
