

Jenny is Scared: When Sad Things Happen in the World

A gentle, comforting, coping story for children who are aware of the threats of violence and terrorism in the world. A range of fears, feelings and questions are explored. Safety, hope and comfort are offered in terms that are honest and reasonable - including the acknowledgement that we cannot control everything. The child reader is encouraged to talk to parents, friends, and other caregivers, and to be part of the long-term solution of tolerance and love for humanity. Suitable for children aged 4-8.
