No person within the burgh shall be entitled, without special agreement with the commissioners, to use the water supplied through the pipes of the commissioners, except for domestic and ordinary purposes; but where there is a supply of water more than is required for such domestic and ordinary purposes within the burgh, it shall be lawful for the commissioners to contract with any person or persons within the burgh to supply any public baths and washhouses, works, manufactories, or other premises within the burgh with water, at such rate and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on, or, in the event of disagreement, either as to the ability of the commissioners to give the supply, or as to the rate, terms, or conditions on or in respect of which the supply is to be given, the same shall be fixed by the sheriff, upon summary application by either of the parties, and the decision of the sheriff shall be final. 223. Whosoever shall wilfully or carelessly break, injure, or open any lock, cock, waste pipe, or waterworks belonging to or under the management or control of the commissioners, or shall unlawfully flush, draw off, divert, or take water from any waterworks belonging to or under the management or control of the commissioners, or from any waters or streams by which such waterworks are supplied, or shall wilfully or negligently waste or cause to be wasted any water with which he is supplied by the commissioners, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and a further penalty of twenty shillings for each day whilst the offence is continued after written notice in that behalf, which penalties shall be paid to the commissioners: provided
