101Moneytalk - A Must Read Buying a Diamond Online is Easy takes they mystery out of a business that has historically been filled with confusion and uncertainty, and replaces it with rock solid knowledge and actionable information that WILL save you money on your diamond.

Book Description In matters of dating and marriage, there used to be three rules of thumb that you could absolutely count on: youd never marry a person to whom you were not personally introduced; the man would always pay for everything, and the engagement ring was always purchased from a jeweler who was both a family referral and an expert in such matters. A lot has changed since back in the day. According to Match.com, 120,000 marriages a year are a direct result of online dating, couples are regularly sharing expenses, and buying diamonds online has become almost as normal as buying a best seller from Amazon.com. Why is this? Because if you can read, you have all it takes to get a great diamond online. Once you know a few basic concepts, each of which is contained in the eBook, standardization of information has made online diamond buying as easy as reading a one page diamond certificate a document which all reputable jewelers, online or on
